She and her husband, Dr. Allen T. Hamilton, operated the practice for over 30 years. She is a graduate of Washington and Jefferson College and the Pennsylvania State College of Medicine, the first woman to attend both institutions and the first woman, medical doctor, to graduate from Penn State. Dr. Hamilton served as secretary to the Women's Medical Society of Western Pennsylvania and served as president of the Women's Medical Association of Western Pennsylvania. She has been active in various professional organizations, as well as the American Academy of Pediatrics, the American Academy of Osteopathy, and the American Association for the Advancement of Science. She and her husband have written articles for various medical journals and professional publications. Throughout her career, Dr. Hamilton has been a strong advocate for the healthcare needs of the disabled. In her family practice, she has provided care to children, the elderly, and people with intellectual, developmental, and behavioral disabilities. She completed her graduate research at the University of Kansas on improving the care of disabled children by designing programs that promote the development of their children in families. She has also devoted time to mentoring students at Pittsburgh's Carnegie Mellon University, Johns Hopkins University, and the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey (New Jersey Medical School). She has been honored with the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette's Flame Award for "serving as an
