'Pine Gap' spy center closed after 50 years By Roland Oliphant 21 October 2017 More than 50 years after the creation of the United States' vast and secret spy complex known as Pine Gap, the world community is closing in on a "best-before" date to shut down the base in Australia. The US government confirmed last week that the "20-year Pine Gap lease" will expire on 30 November, bringing to a close the secretive joint US-Australian facility at which US satellites act as a "keyhole" into the consciousness of the US military and its allies around the world. The facility has long been a subject of suspicion, particularly in light of its close collaboration with the
